The Community Mediation Center will be conducting an Introductory Mediation Training in May beginning on Saturday, May 15th and ending on Saturday, May 22nd. The 24-hour Introductory Mediation Training will prepare anyone, including parents, educators, and business and human resource professionals to begin mediating conflicts in the workplace, the community, and Magistrate Court.

In this training, you will:
Learn a widely used 7-step mediation process.
Gain a new perspective on listening.
Increase your ability to express your needs and interests.
Learn to appreciate others' perspectives and autonomy.
Practice the mediation process and skills in a supportive environment.
Develop the capacity to help people in conflict by using your new skills.

A $150 registration fee is required to cover the cost of all materials, including a training binder and mediator handbook.

A $50 deposit is due by Monday, May 3rd. The remaining $100 registration fee is due on the first day of the training.

Questions can be directed to Timothy McDonough or Dorothy Garretson at the Community Mediation Center:
